Where to start?

An active profile in the Golf Canada Score Centre is required to register for regional and/or provincial competitions. The profile must contain a date of birth and an e-mail address that is not used by any other profile (active or not). This same e-mail address must also be used as a username for the active profile.

If you are a new member at a Golf Québec member club

Contact your club's administration to activate your profile.

If you've moved from one Golf Québec member club to another

Ask your new club to retrieve your existing profile. Creating a second profile will cause identification problems when registering for tournaments.

Regional Competitions

The various tournaments organized by the regional associations are ideal for female golfers wishing to start competing. These tours allow golfers to prepare for provincial competitions.

Golf Québec supports eight (8) regional associations that organize their own competition tours.

For more information on the eight (8) regional associations supervised by Golf Québec and their competitions, please visit their websites:

2026 Women's Amateur and 2026 Women's Senior

Points distribution charts are used according to the number of players entered in each competition. You can consult these charts in the rankings section of our website.

For all tournaments, the same number of points will be allocated to all golfers tied for a specific rank.

The committee may add or delete events throughout the season.

For amateurs, only an athlete's six (6) best results will be retained at ODM for the period from April 1, 2026, to October 15, 2026.

The ODM ranking will be final on October 20, 2026. No corrections will be made after this date.

For all stroke play tournaments, all cut players will receive the equivalent of 5% of the winner's points.
